EspañolFrançaisPortugués

Welcome to this last issue of the year of our multilingual Parliamentarians@COP30 newsletter, prepared by GLOBE Legislators serving as the UNFCCC Focal Point for the world's parliamentary constituency. Our work supports legislators to deliver on their Paris Agreement (and related) climate commitments, and to prepare for and engage effectively at COP30.

This year, GLOBE added another language – Portuguese – to the newsletters to facilitate engagement by legislators from Brazil, the host of COP30. The newsletters are now available in English, French, Portuguese, and Spanish.

We are proud to have work closely with the COP28-COP29-COP30 Presidencies, now brought together as the first such Troika, to better coordinate across the Presidencies and support Mission 1.5C. From 2026 onwards, we look forward to working with the COP31 Co-Presidencies of Türkiye and Australia and look forward to engaging with their parliamentarians.

Our focus is on ensuring that the global parliamentary constituency is well-informed and supported to engage in the UNFCCC process, the annual COPs and related international fora. Tune in for in-depth updates at our monthly Webinars for the Parliamentary constituency (details below) and our bi-monthly newsletters.

Resource: At COP28 and COP29 GLOBE hosted the first Parliamentary Pavilions at COP.

The 75+ events covering all key COP issues were livestreamed, with the recordings available as a permanent resource for MPs and staff keen to understand the issues from leading players. These remain a relevant and handy resource for MPs seeking to navigate COP issues, multilateral funds, etc. The Pavilion recordings and more can be found on the GLOBE YouTube channel playlists here, with photos on Flickr here.

UN/COP30 Presidency Updates

2026 must kickstart a new Decade of Implementation – UN Chief

Image credit: Tribune Online

Secretary General of the United Nations, António Guterres, has stated that 2026 must begin a new decade of implementation of climate action, if the world is to achieve the 1.5 degrees goal of the Paris Agreement. Guterres, who acknowledged that a decade after the Paris Agreement was adopted, significant progress has been made to bend the curve of global temperature rise, advised that the world must do more to ensure that more people access the "benefits of clean energy, resilient infrastructure, better health, and new jobs" with more countries having better access to climate finance and technology. He further advised that "more leaders must choose cooperation over conflict, solidarity over short-term interest, and science over denial and disinformation." More here

COP31 Date Announced

AGNES Presents Africa's Model Climate Change Law

II. The Model Climate Change Law

THE MODEL CLIMATE CHANGE LAW FRAMEWORK FOR AFRICA

On 4th December 2025, the Climate Parliament and Africa Group of Negotiators Expert Support (AGNES), presented the draft Model Climate Change Law for Africa. According to AGNES, the "Model Climate Change Law (MCCL) is a pioneering legislative blueprint created through extensive consultations with African parliamentarians, legal experts, climate scientists, UN agencies, and civil society. The MCCL provides a coherent and context-appropriate framework that countries can use to draft or strengthen national climate laws. It integrates best international practices while reflecting African priorities such as adaptation, resilience, responsive governance, and equitable development." The virtual roundtable was attended by MPs and experts from Kenya, Ghana, Nigeria, Rwanda, Senegal, Seychelles, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Botswana, Sierra Leone. Barry Gardiner makes case for Climate-Sensitive Budgeting

Image Credit: The Guardian

The UK's Barry Gardiner MP, representing London's Brent West Constituency, has called on the UK Parliament to factor in climate impacts and how to reverse them, in its budgeting process. Hon. Gardiner made this call on 1 December, 2025, while addressing the budget delivered to the House on 26 November, 2025. He pointed out that global emissions have gradually risen to the point of "dangerous climate change" which must be checked to avoid the collapse of the economy, mass migration, chaos, etc. More here

MPs call for solidarity to deliver climate action

Members of Parliament from South Asia have called for regional climate multilateralism as a solution to the raging climate crisis. The call was made by MPs from India, Bhutan, Sri Lanka and Maldives. Reflecting on the outcomes of COP30, and the fact that the world is gradually slipping away from the 1.5 degrees threshold, the MPs said it was time for a "reimagined form of climate multilateralism, one shaped by the priorities, realities, and leadership of the Global South". In 2026, the Parliamentary Group's monthly "Parliamentarians@COP31" webinar will commence on 28 January, 2026. The morning and afternoon sessions will provide an important platform for members of parliamentary networks to discuss plans for COP31 and beyond. The webinar will help with information sharing, planning and coordination by Members of Parliament, staff and parliamentary organisations for COP31 and related processes to inform and support parliamentary engagement.

A full calendar for 2026 will be released and shared with the Group in January, 2026.

To register, please email <focalpoint@globelegislators.org>.

Parliamentarians@COP31 Newsletter

Next year, we will continue with the provision of bi-monthly updates on key happenings on climate change and sustainable development across the world, through our multi-lingual Parliamentarians@COP31 newsletter.

Dates for 2026 publications will be released in January, 2026.

Kindly share your updates through focalpoint@globelegislators.org
